EARLY MORNING FIRE.

The Handsome Residence of Mrs. Alice Richeson Damaged.

Just before 7 o'clock this morning the handsome residence of Mrs. Alice Richeson, just being vacated by the family of Mr. J. M. Scott, was discovered to be on fire.

Mrs. Melvin, who was doing the cooking, had lighted a coal oil stove and stepped out for a few moments.

On her return the entire kitchen was in a blaze, and before the firemen arrived the flames had extended to a side porch and reached the main building. Here they leaped to the Mansard roof, where for over one hour the firemen waged a fierce war, finally conquering.

Mr. Scott, who is moving to Louisville, had shipped nearly all his furniture, so his loss is fortunately slight.

In the upper rooms Mrs. Richeson had stored much of her furniture and the heirlooms of her father's family, which were badly damaged.

Mrs. Richeson's loss is thought to be fully covered by an insurance of $3,000 on the building and $250 on furniture.

MASON COUNTY'S BIG FAIR!

SECOND DAY'S SUCCESS!

An Estimator Estimates the Crowd at Fully 5,000.

LIST OF PREMIUMS AWARDED.

Yesterday was a phenomenal day at the Maysville Fairgrounds, the crowd being among the largest ever gathered there, and some estimates place the number as high as 5,000, which is not much exaggerated.

There was an unusual contribution of visitors from points on the L. and N. and the C. and O., the excursion trains bringing large numbers.

Best of all, the visitors, individually and collectively, were not only satisfied and gratified, but they promised to come again.

It is a matter of congratulation that the Management has succeeded for once in giving a popular entertainment that is devoid of the gambling features that have heretofore prevailed.

Throughout, the entire program is clean and the Fair can be safely visited by the most fastidious.

As might be expected Dr. Carver's fancy shooting, his diving horses, diving elks, and guinea pigs were the chief attraction, any single feature of which is well worth more than the price of admission.

The premium of $10 for the handsomest display of merchandise was awarded to Klipp & Brown.

Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Beecher's German Syrup." The bravery of a young domestic employed by Dr. S. F. O'Bryan at Hillsboro frustrated a bold attempt to rob the Doctor's residence Monday night. The young woman was sleeping in a second-story room and was awakened by some one trying to get in at the window. The would-be housebreaker, who was standing on a ladder, saw her and started down. She gave the ladder a push, sending the man to the ground, who disappeared before help arrived.
